

Rev A. A. Phelps

no 32 Washington St Boston Mass

He of course had a hard task to make it appear that the interest of this society required that the subjects of "Colonization, Abolition & Temperance" be no more "lectured or preached upon" when ^{on coming together} it was found that a handsome majority of the meeting were Abolitionists. I assure you the poor man for shame ^{that} his kindred spirits ^{should} desert ~~ed~~ him at such a time, found himself in no very pleasant situation. The Abolitionists, however, thought it to be fair, so they voted that each of the above subjects might be discussed in the church 4 times a year. Our Colonization friends thought they should not wish to use the house more than twice a year in the present state of their cause, but the Abolitionists were hardly satisfied with that, but concluded to fix it at four, or once in three months.

I have heard many remark, in effect that the Parish Meeting of yesterday would do as much for the cause of Anti Slavery here as a course of Lectures. So it is, that the wrath of man promotes the cause of righteousness & truth.

Yours for this cause
J. Bowdell

My omission to give you the name of bro
Chas Peabody. (who goes into North Worcester) occurred to me after my letter was in the P. Office
I have considerable confidence in br. Peabody that he will do well for the cause in case he does not find the ground too much pre-occupied

The bundle of "Journals" is recd. for which accept my thanks. I have supplied the brethren pretty generously, & kept a good supply ^{myself} to distribute at the Quar. Meeting at G. as well as in my travels.
I enclose $100 which I have recd. from Mr James Abbott (You have his name already, & bro. Russell will see by reference to the letter he sent me that he had then been marked "paid" through mistake.

You will rejoice to learn that our Parish meeting held yesterday to see if the Parish would shelt ~~at~~ the ~~street~~ Church against Anti Slavery Lectures passed off with much good feeling, & greatly to the promotion of the cause of justice & the slave.
You will recollect, perhaps, that I expressed ^{to you} considerable solicitude as to the result of it.

This has been far better than was anticipated.
The meeting was large (i.e. all the members of the parish)
but of the seven petitioners who called the meeting
none appeared save one!

Dear Brother Phelps.

I regret to be obliged to say to you that it will be impossible for me to leave here this week. Mr & Mrs Abbott were unexpectedly called away this morn. to New Hampshire to attend the funeral of her father, consequently my stay at home is rendered necessary.

I shall, however, providence permitting, leave here on Monday next, and will attend the meeting ^{at} Boston next week.

The other brethren have already left or will leave in the course of the week. I ought to except bro. Callahan, who, you will recollect was to go into Bristol Co. Bro. C. would gladly go did circumstances permit & indeed it is not certain that he will not go, but there is so much uncertainty in the case that he wishes me to say to you, that you need not reserve the ground for him.
